Collaboration That Works: How OhioMeansJobs Stark & Tuscarawas Counties Supported Shelly's Path to Employment

After being laid off, Shelly filed for unemployment insurance and was soon selected to participate in the RESEA program, which connected her with the OhioMeansJobs Stark & Tuscarawas Counties team and a range of job search resources.

Shelly worked with Tabitha, an Employment Services Specialist, who helped update her resume to highlight her skills and strong work ethic and shared local job opportunities from the Employment Services job list. To expand Shelly's opportunities, Tabitha collaborated with Anita Rutledge, an Employment Services Professional, sharing Shelly's resume and helping connect her with employers. Tabitha also provided interview guidance to ensure Shelly felt prepared and confident.

After applying and interviewing for several positions, Shelly accepted a laborer position with Cooper Standard, earning $15.94 per hour.

Shelly's story highlights how collaboration across the OhioMeansJobs Stark & Tuscarawas Counties team helps connect job seekers with employment
